Interlibrary Loan is a primary service that supports research and teaching activities by providing referral service or obtaining literature not available in our Library from other sources. It is the policy of Hong Kong Shue Yan University Library (hereafter referred to as "the Library") to acquire all materials stated in course outlines. However, if you find the materials not acquired by the library and you need them for teaching and research, you may place a request for the material through Interlibrary Loan. Please fill in the bibliographic information of material in the following space. The Library will verify that the material is not in the library collection. Then, the Library will try to obtain the material by interlibrary loan service from local or overseas university libraries. The Library cannot guarantee the fulfillment of the request as other university libraries may refuse our requests on any grounds they think appropriate. Before you decide to request the ILL service, please make sure you have read our ILL service policy at the 'For Staff' / 'For Students' on the library webpage www.hksyu.edu.hk/lib
